Ref: Principal at Samuel Whitbread Academy

Dear Students/Parents/Carers

I am delighted to announce that following a comprehensive and rigorous recruitment process, Mr Nick Martin has been appointed as Principal of Samuel Whitbread Academy. Nick impressed members of the student body, Governors and Directors with his clear vision to lead the school from Good to Outstanding.

Nick joined Samuel Whitbread, from Harlington in 2013. Since then, he has led by example and with huge commitment to best serve the needs of all students. In 2016, the school enjoyed its highest set of examination results ever, both at GCSE and A Level. Prior to this, Nick successfully held a number of senior school improvement positions, both within Central Bedfordshire and at the National College for School Leadership (NCSL). He brings this wealth of experience and proven track record to Samuel Whitbread.

I'm sure you will want to congratulate Nick on and support him in his appointment. When all members of our community – students, parents/carers, staff – pull together, there is no limit to what we may achieve. Together, under Nick's leadership we will realise our vision of delivering outstanding education for all.

Yours sincerely
