

SIXTH FORM ON CALL BISCUIT/CHOCOLATE HOURS

Sixth Form students Believe – Achieve – Succeed – Exceed

The Sixth Form on call biscuit/chocolate hour takes place when Mr Huckle (Associate Principal – Head of Sixth Form) is on SLT on call. Mr Huckle will pop in to year 12 and 13 classrooms to offer praise. Please see below for the process.

STEPS TO FOLLOW

1. Mr Huckle will enter a Sixth Form lesson where the teacher will be asked to identify one or two students who have shown excellent attitude to learning, independent learning, progress and/or attainment over the last two weeks.
2. The student/s will be offered a biscuit or chocolate bar as praise for this achievement
3. If the student has allergies, Mr Huckle will sort out an alternative the student/s can collect from the Sixth Form

EXAMPLE REASONS THE TEACHER CAN SELECT A STUDENT FROM THE CLASS

- Achieved an assessment grade above their target grade.
- Achieved an assessment grade in line with their target grade.
- Achieved an assessment grade that shows improvement when compared to the previous grade.
- Excellent attitude to learning and contribution in class across the last fortnight.
- Excellent independent learning evidenced during the last fortnight.
- Any other reason that warrants this praise.
